

Bio-View Network System Overview - Local System

This scenario represents a situation where the biometric system is set-up and administered locally

Bio-View Network System Overview - Remote Management

This scenario represents a situation where the homeowner has several homes, and the system is administered by an Integrator at a remote location.

